(1) Beginning the first day of the fourth month preceding the election, full reporting special election committees file C-3 reports weekly, on Monday; one C-3 for each deposit made during the preceding 7 days (previous Monday through Sunday).

Points to Remember:

- ≡ Use full name and address of committee on all reports.
- ≡ Reports are considered filed on day of postmark or, if filed electronically, on the file transfer date.
- ≡ Send copies of all reports to PDC and your county elections office. (Not required if filing electronically with PDC)
- ≡ Candidates use Form C-1 to register their campaign committees within two weeks of becoming a candidate. Non-incumbents also file personal financial affairs statement (Form F-1) within two weeks of becoming a candidate.
- ≡ Political committees register by filing a C-1pc within two weeks of receiving contributions, making expenditures or otherwise forming a committee. Political committees that organize within three weeks of an election must register within three days of organizing.

Electronic record keeping and filing is available. Contact PDC at 1-877-601-2828 or pdcc@pdc.wa.gov if you have questions.
